

An Afternoon of Song with the Polperro Wreckers

Sunday 27th July at Whitecross Village Hall 2pm - 4pm

Join us for a Cuppa and Cornish Split, and a rousing afternoon of traditional sea shanties and local charm!

Free entry but a small charge for a Hot Drink and Split with Jam and Cream from the kitchen plus a Raffle.

All donations gratefully accepted towards the upkeep of the hall and some vital roof repairs.

The Polperro Wreckers are a spirited offshoot of the renowned Polperro Fishermen's Choir. Formed in 2009, they bring a lively and informal twist to traditional Cornish sea shanties and folk songs, characterised by rich harmonies, maritime melodies, and a hearty dose of Cornish charm.
